A completed and approved waiver must be on file with the police department prior to the observer being allowed in any department vehicle.

For and in consideration of the undersigned being given the opportunity of observing police operations and functions of the Snowflake-Taylor Police Department by riding in the vehicle operated by members of the department, and by any and all, other means of observation whatsoever, I hereby release and agree to hold harmless the Towns of Snowflake and Taylor, their employees, and agents both personally and as agents and employees, from any and all liability for any damage and injury which I may receive while accompanying in or upon said motor vehicles, and which I may receive while accompanying Snowflake-Taylor Police Officers, regardless of the cause of such damage or injury whether through negligence or otherwise.

This release of liability and agreement given to me by the Towns, its employees and agents, shall apply to any right of action that might occur to myself, my heirs, and my personal representatives. Further, I agree to assume all risks in riding in/on the said department vehicles and in accompanying its officers and agents and am fully aware that personal danger may be involved.

This waiver to release from liability shall be in effect and fully operate for the period of the date of execution to 90 days after this date of execution.
